Learn Spanish and Volunteer as an English Tutor in Ecuador

Program Introduction

The Language tutoring program is designed for native English speakers who would like to visit Ecuador in order to improve their Spanish language skills and gain a deeper understanding of the Latin American culture and lifestyle.

Why choose Ecuador to study and travel?

Ecuador is one of the 20 most bio-diverse countries in the world. Just 1/3 of the size of B.C., it has more plant and animal species than all of North America combined. Because of its small size, you can visit snowy mountains one weekend and a tropical rain forest the next all within a one hour drive from its capital city, Quito. Quito was the first city in the world to be named World Heritage Site by the Unesco because it holds the biggest and best kept Spanish colonial town in the world. It also offers breathtaking landscapes, a varied cultural offer and plenty of entertainment options. Its inhabitants speak one of the clearest Spanish accents and its Spanish schools are famous around the world. People that visit Ecuador always comment that the best of all are their people and how easy it is to make friends and have a great time.

Program Description

The aim of the program is to provide Canadian students with the opportunity to learn Spanish on a one to one basis in a private school, while living with an Ecuadorian family and volunteering by teaching them English. The program is aimed as a cultural exchange and participants are to be treated as another member of the host family in order to facilitate the exchange of languages and cultures.

On your free time, participants can travel and get to know the Amazon jungle, the Andes highlands, and the Galapagos Islands!

Teaching at your home stay, travelling, learning about a new culture and establishing life-lasting friendships is something you should not miss!
